Carmie Sellitto, 22, uploaded a video to YouTube claiming the items were stolen after he left them in a backpack in a backpack the car of his housekeeper, while visiting his Másuo friend house in London. The bag supposedly contained belongings, including a Rolex, her father saved to buy it for his 21st birthday, as well as his laptop, camera and beard trimmer, along with his wallet and house keys. However, he said he did not know if he would go to the police, saying, "I feel like the person who took my things clearly needed more than me," he said. 'Actually, it's not the case because they stole my camera and my laptop and as soon as I work. "The unique things I had left were my ps4 and my iphone fortunately - because if I had no of these things, oh my f ***** god. I would have jumped in front of the next moving train. The followers They ran to Symaphthis with Carmie, although some questioned his story, asking why he would leave so many valuable, and pointing that he does not have a Beard.-Carmie Sellitto, 22, from Hampshire, who has more than 687,000 subscribers on YouTube, It counted as £ 20, 000 Vale of his belongings were stolen after he left them in a parked car. In the photo: Carmie with his girlfriend, Kate Elisabeth - followers sympathed with Carmie, but some were cynics and claimed that his story about the Assault did not add Carmie explained the robbery happened when he was driving with Millie and they decided to park and visit his friend Ben - who is allowed a social bubble 'because he lives alone Carmie, who was inside the house for less than two hours q Whiting his purse was stolen, she said. "We went to Ben Morrisey's place for about an hour-half. We were literally just relaxing in his place and having fun, literally just relaxing and recovering and then we decided to go home. 'It was as if 5pm and had just turned dark. I had all my things in my backpack. I do not know why, but when I'm traveling, I like having my things with me. Carmie, who told her subscribers that he will be pausing from YouTube, explained that when Ben's house discovered that his backpack was missing and went into a pile. Carmie (pictured) said that her backpack containing £ 20,000 - worth the belongings was stolen from her friend's car, he began to list the value of the eyes of the belongings that were taken and said: 'Number one, my designer bag That was like £ 850. The things I have in that bag, as if I do not use many designer clothes. Designer, tend to spend money on it because I know it will be better in the long run. When you spend your money on things that will be benese in the future rather than clothes, it makes sense. "Anyway, I had my stolen washing bag, which had my beard trimmer, my shave ... I could not shave my beard. Today is the first day I could shave my beard because I had to buy an out of Amazon.'i I could not even use my own card because my wallet was stolen too. I had two wallets in that bag with my ID, with my home address and all this happened : 'I had my car keys taken, my laptop, my camera and it's where it gets bad. I had my 21th birthday present that my father passed for so long to - he basically bought me a Rolex clerk .'carmie revealed the clock was worth an estimate £ 13,000 - adding that he is struggling with the sensation of losing a gift that costs so much. He continued: 'The fact that I had to play my father And the first thing I told my father is: "I need help calling the police or not." "My father goes" what is Happening ", what you "I told him everything and then I had to tell him about the clock I had stolen." My father was genuinely annoyed and my heart kind of breaks a little. I can not believe that this is kind of guilt. Carmie (photo) revealed that his friends had to convince him to Police to report theft - adding that they did not give you much advice on what to say Carmie added the person who stole the items would have filmed on the camera in Millie's car, but he is not sure if he will be "Pressing accusation." He explained that when his coaches were stolen as a child, his father taught him, who took the item probably needed more. He went on to say that his friends had to convince him to call police, however, they reluctant to give him advice on what to say because they were discussing each other about their food order. The priorities of these people - I have no cold," he said. "And then it worsens. I wake up the next morning and I say my sister about it. My sister with all my things, so that 'ou can call it as a personal assistant. Carmie said she received a phone call from someone pretending to work for the HSBC after her wallet was stolen. Pictured: Carmie with YouTuber Millie 'She canceled my card that was with TSB. . I'm not sure how much I can say because I do not want to leap my things. But I have another card for the HSBC and I get an HSBC connection the next morning and this guy gets to be really sketching on the phone. The number he called was very sketching and he was basically asking for loads of my details. Carmie said she realized that the call was fraudulent after realizing that the person called him his full name, which would be known by someone who has his card. He revealed that the person in the Phone started asking for his complete speech as his sister asked him not to give more information. YouTuber stated that the person used a recording of the HSBC's Phone Line so that his voice mail seems to be legacy. Carmie explained that he and his house are afraid that the thief can try to get entrance to his house. In the photo: Carmie with girlfriend Kate Elisabethhede added that now they do not feel safe in his house and it is not the first time that strangers tried to come to the house. "I wanted to go back to my house home, but then the blockade, so I'm literally stuck here," he explained. I would not want to leave Millie and Spencer alone here, knowing that someone could be potentially coming to my house to steal more of my items. I can not explain physically how I feel, I have not been able to sleep at night and I have cried most days. I'm not even the kind of person to cry. I do not know what else to do, I probably will not be able to make youtube video for now, because I do not have a laptop, camera or card sd.'oh. And they also stole my SD card that had about 264 GB of content from me and my friends.
